NOTED CRITIC
TO SPEAK AT UM

MISSOULA--

University of Montana
The / Department of English will sponsor a lecture on Thursday (April 23) by the noted critic Dr. Robert B. Heilman, chairman of the Department of English at the University of Washington, Seattle. Dr. Heilman will speak on "American Dreams, the New Life, and the Old Adam." The lecture is at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall and admission is free. The lecture is open to the public.

Dr. Heilman is the author of eight books, ranging from studies in Shakespeare and the English novel to the theory of tragedy.

His books on "King Lear" and "Othello" are generally considered to be the groundwork for much modern criticism of Shakespeare.

"Understanding Drama," which Heilman wrote with Cleanth Brooks of Yale University, has had a considerable influence on the teaching of drama in the U.S. "Tragedy and Melodrama," Heilman's most recent book, has been described as a significant step toward the definition of tragedy from Aeschylus to Samuel Beckett.
